

3 = critical
2 = important
1 = monitor
0 = out of scope

→ Indicates challenges which were combined

U.S. AIR FORCE

Prioritization of Challenges

A-76 process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ AF implementation of the new OMB A-76 process ▪ Execution of Air Force-wide strategic approach to A-76 	PBSA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Consistent application of a Performance Based Service Acquisition (PBSA) so everyone knows when they have a PBSA PWS/contract ▪ Training and implementing the principles of Performance Based Services Acquisition (PBSA) and Performance Based Requirements Documents ▪ Training in PBSA and program management processes and procedures ▪ Training on performance measurement and management ▪ Performance-based PWSs should have SME stamp of approval 	QAE Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Contract and technical training ▪ Policy – performance measurement and management ▪ Core documents that recognize skill requirements and technical capability of our QAEs 	QAE Multi-Year Contracts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Multiple Year Contracts (Section 843) ▪ FAR 17.1 applicability ▪ 5-year term limit is extremely constricting ▪ OSD/AT&L at odds with GC interpretation of law ▪ DFARS implementation is slow—leaves programs vulnerable ▪ Use of annual year options precludes strategic partnering
CPARS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Quality descriptions of contract requirements and contractor performance should be the measurement of populating Past Performance Information Retrieval System (PPIRS), not the quantity entered into PPIRS ▪ Writing CPARS in a manner that is useful to Source Selection teams 		Commodity Councils <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ AF approach to bundling for commodity council acquisitions ▪ Lack of guidance on the use of GSA-FSS for goods and services using commodity councils ▪ Consolidating requirements to achieve greater buying power must be tempered with opportunities for small business ▪ Concept conflicts with SB goals 	Bull's Eye - combination of all challenges